The Valley of Siddim was full of bitumen wells. The kings of Sodom and Gomorrah fled and fell into them while the rest fled to a mountain. They seized all the wealth of Sodom and Gomorrah and all their food and they departed. And they captured Lot (Avram's nephew) and his possessions and they left; for he was residing in Sodom.

When Avram heard that they had taken Lot he gathered his three hundred and eighteen servants and armed them. He pursued them as far as Dan. Avram deployed his servants in the middle of the night and took their encampment. Malchizedek went out to meet Avram bringing him bread and wine and he blessed him saying: "Blessed is Avram of Elohim, the Most High, Maker of heaven and earth; and blessed be Elohim, the Most High, Who has delivered your foes into your hand"; and he gave him a tenth of everything. Avram said to the king of Sodom: "I lift up my hand to YHWH, Elohim, the Most High, Maker of heaven and earth, if so much as a thread to a shoe strap; or if I shall take from anything of yours! So you shall not say, 'It is I who made Avram rich.' Far from me! Only what the young men have eaten, and the share of the men who accompanied me: Aner, Eshcol, and Mamre — they will take their portion."
