(Send Away)

YHWH has completed pouring out His plagues upon Pharaoh and upon all of Egypt. Egypt lies in ruin. Pharaoh has commanded the children of Israel to leave his country. He has been broken. However, after the children of Israel leave, YHWH hardens Pharaoh's heart one last time.

Pharaoh, after sending the children of Israel away, realizes that he no longer has a work force and decides to go and get them back. So he pursues them with great anger. He catches up to them on the bank of Yam Suf (the Red Sea).

However, YHWH stood between the army of Pharaoh and His people in a pillar of cloud by day and a pillar of fire by night. He then commanded Moshe to raise his staff and YHWH parted the sea. The children of Israel then crossed over to the other side on dry ground.

After they had crossed over, YHWH lifted the pillar of cloud and Pharaoh pursued them into the sea. However, when Pharaoh and all of his army was in the midst of the sea, YHWH caused the water to come back in over them and Pharaoh and all his army perished in the sea that day.

All of Israel then burst into a song of praise called the "Song by the Sea."
