ויחי Vayechi (And He Lived)

And Ya'aqov lived in the land of Mitsrayim seventeen years. So the length of Ya'aqov's life was one hundred and forty-seven years. And the time for Is-ra'el to die drew near, and he called his son Yoseph and said to him, "Now if I have found favor in your eyes, please put your hand under my thigh, and show kindness and truth to me. Please do not bury me in Mitsrayim, but I shall lie with my fathers, and you shall take me up out of Mitsrayim and bury me in their burial place." And he said, "I do as you have said." Ya'aqov became ill and blessed his sons and Yoseph's sons Ephraim and Manasheh. All these are the twelve tribes of Yisra'el, and this is what their father spoke to them. And he blessed them, he blessed each one according to his own blessing. And he commanded them, and said to them, "I am to be gathered to my people; bury me with my fathers in the cave that is in the field of Ephron the Hittite, in the cave that is in the field of Machpelah, which is before Mamre in the land of Canaan, which Avraham bought with the field of Ephron the Hittite as a possession for a burial site. There they buried Avraham and Sarah his wife, there they buried Yitzhak and Rivkah his wife, and there I buried Leah – the field purchased, and the cave which is in it, from the sons of Heth." And when Ya'aqov ended commanding his sons, he drew his feet up into the bed and breathed his last, and was gathered to his people.
