Yitro

(Jethro)

Yitro came to visit Moshe. When he came, he brought with him Moshe's wife Zipporah and Moshe's two sons. Yitro was a priest in the land of Midyan and he was a priest to YHWH. They had a big feast in which Yitro acted as the priest for the sacrifices. One day Yitro watched as people brought their disputes to Moshe. Yitro gave Moshe the counsel to appoint leaders of 10s, leaders of 50s, leaders of 100s and leaders of 1000s. Moshe realized that YHWH was speaking to him through Yitro and followed his counsel.

When it was time for YHWH to come down on Mount Sinai, YHWH warned Moshe to put a boundary around the mountain to keep both the people and the animals away from the mountain lest they be killed.

When YHWH came down on the mountain and began speaking His commandments to the people, the people grew terrified and asked Moshe to tell YHWH to stop speaking to them, but to only speak to Moshe; and that they would listen to him and obey YHWH through Moshe. So YHWH stopped speaking directly to the people and only spoke through Moshe.
